

4 Reasons You May Want Cancel for Any Reason for Your Student's Trip

The life of a student is eventful and unpredictable. A travel protection plan can reimburse for covered expenses, but what if you need to cancel for a reason not covered by the plan?

That's where the Cancel for Any Reason (CFAR) benefit comes in.

Here are some examples of common reasons a student would need to cancel their trip.

The Trouble-Maker

Your student gets in trouble at school and is no longer eligible to attend, per the school rules.

While your student will be in trouble, you won't be! CFAR can recover up to 75% of the insured trip cost.

The Overachiever

Your student qualifies for the big tournament (spelling bee, sports, etc.)! But the dates conflict with the trip they are supposed to go on.

You won't be at a total loss if they can't go on the trip since CFAR can reimburse up to 75% of the insured trip cost.

The Animal Lover

Your family pet gets sick or injured before the trip and needs veterinarian care. Your student wants to stay home now to be by their pet's side.

Luckily, CFAR can reimburse up to 75% of the insured trip cost.

The Tight Budget

Life happens, and sometimes travel plans need to take a backseat.

If you can no longer afford the trip, CFAR can help get up to 75% of your prepaid, nonrefundable trip costs back.

Cancel for Any Reason (CFAR) is not available to plan holders located in New York State.
